THE SCHEME FAILS

Effort to Disfranchise Republicans Unsuccessful

Judge Lightfoot Held That Proof Must Be Introduced of Names Will Remain.

ANOTHER BLOW FOR YEISER

The Yeiser faction, who through Mayor Yeiser's campaign manager served notices on between 300 and 400 colored voters a few days ago to appear in county court to show cause why their names should not be stricken, got knocked out in the first round today.

The notices served in wholesale lots on anybody so he happened to be a Republican, were returnable today, tomorrow and Monday. Out of the batch considered before dinner, only two names were stricken, and those were Jack Satterfield and Henry Jones of the Glauber precinct. The evidence showed that they registered legally and were legal voters, but after registering their house burned and they had to take up their abode elsewhere which took them out of the precinct. Their names were stricken, but only for this election, and not because they were registered illegally.

The point on which the Yeiser adherents seemed to rest their hopes of success in the gigantic scheme of disfranchising voters of an opposite political faith was whether or not a voter had to be present and reply to the notice. The test came when the first voter failed to respond.

County Attorney Graves, who was assisting Attorney James Campbell, Jr., Mayor Yeiser's manager, wanted Judge Lightfoot to rule that if a man did not answer, his name should be stricken without further delay.

Attorneys Sam Houston and Ed Hubbard, for the Republicans, strenuously objected and were sustained by Judge Lightfoot. The court said in substance that every legal voter had a right to vote, and that because he did not appear in person to reply to a motion made to strike his name from the registration books, was no sign he was not a legal voter and entitled to vote. He said that to begin with, the notices sent out were not in accordance with the statutes. Instead of simply notifying the voter that such and such a person would on such and such a date make a motion to strike his name from the registration lists, the notices command the voter to "appear and show cause why your name shall not be stricken." Judge Lightfoot said, suppose for instance some man entitled to register and vote should get one of the notices and fail on account of sickness or absence to reply to the notice. Could it be held by a court that the man should because of his misfortune be deprived of his vote for a year by his name being stricken from the registration? He did not think so, and explained that the prosecution had its witnesses there it could prove its case just as well as without the defendant and his witnesses, and if those witnesses proved the defendant was registered illegally, and not a legal voter, the name would be stricken. Otherwise it would not.

As the Democrats have little, if any, evidence against any of the three or four hundred voters notified to appear in court, this was a virtual defeat for them in their scheme. They hoped that the name of every voter who did not respond in person to their intimidating notices signed by no officer and served by the sheriff with the expectation of collecting his fee from the county, would be stricken, but they were disappointed. Judge Lightfoot took a very fair, sensible view of it and decided proof must be produced.

Here is the kind of evidence offered by the Yeiser attorneys as an excuse for depriving voters of their right to vote. Anderson Cartright, colored, was registered as living in a house on Second street. He was the first man who failed to appear in answer to the notice sent him. Policeman Wm. Johnson was introduced and said that he knew the house from which Cartright registered, but was not certain he knew Cartright. He did not "think," however, that Cartright lived there. The officer admitted on cross examination that he did not know that Cartright did not live in the house at which he gave his residence, and admitted that he did not even know Cartright for sure. In fact all he knew about the case was the location of the house. His was the only evidence offered, and Cartright's name remains on the registration.

Democrats all over the city have begun to denounce political methods which result in such proceedings as that above. They say that they do not approve of it and are not responsible for what the Yeiser element does. It is claimed that the Yeiser element represents less than 1,000 out of 2,800 Democratic votes, and that the scheme is one that the party does not sanction and did not hatch. It is estimated that many votes have been lost to the Yeiser crowd by the scheme to disfranchise Republican voters.

Judge Lightfoot decided that voters whose houses burn or who move between registration day and election had been legally registered and their names may not be stricken from the books, but that they cannot vote on November 3.

This afternoon the name of Robert Boswell was the only one stricken while N. Baynam's name was marked doubtful.

USED A SHOT GUN

Son-in-Law Killed Irate Relative.

A Tragedy Results From a Family Feud.

Shreveport, La., Oct. 30.—News of the killing of J. W. McCain, a prosperous farmer, by Joseph L. Piron, his father-in-law, has reached here. The killing occurred near Belcher, twenty miles above Shreveport, in Caddo parish, early this morning, and was the result of a family feud. Piron has been constable at Belcher for thirty years and is one of the best known men in the parish. McCain was 35 years of age, while his slayer is 65. The killing has created a distinct sensation in the vicinity of Belcher, owing to the prominence of the parties involved.

It is claimed that some months ago criminal charges were preferred against McCain as a result of a vicious assault on his young wife and mother-in-law. The wife took her children and went home to her mother. The criminal charges against McCain were withdrawn, and this morning he went to his father-in-law's house for the purpose of getting his wife to return to his home. It is claimed by Piron's friends that McCain was seen to exhibit a weapon, and remarked in the hearing of several persons that he would get his wife and children if he had to wade through blood.

Piron went to his home, loaded his double-barreled shotgun and awaited McCain's arrival. When the husband reached there he was met by his irate father-in-law, who fired both barrels of the shotgun at him, both charges taking effect in his arm. McCain fled to the woods nearby, and 20 minutes later Piron followed him. It is said that Piron found McCain seated on a log, binding his wounds with some lint and a bottle of liniment. What passed between them is not known, at any rate Piron again fired both barrels of his shotgun into McCain's body, killing him instantly. Piron is in custody.

INDIANA MAN MURDERED.

Vincennes, Ind., Oct. 30.—William J. Engle, secretary of the Vincennes Dist'g Co., was shot and killed this morning at 2 o'clock. Engle was at home and had risen to take a train to St. Louis. He heard a noise in the kitchen and went down stairs and as he reached the kitchen was met by a volley. Two bullets entered his head and he fell unconscious. Officers are searching for his assailants. Engle was one of the most prominent business men in the city.

LATE ARRESTS—Ed Kelley, white, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of stealing a pair of shoes from Ackerman, the second hand dealer, and for a breach of the peace.

HELD RESPONSIBLE

Negligent Employees Blamed for Haynes' Death.

Jury Heard the Evidence and Rendered a Verdict Yesterday Afternoon.

The inquest into the death of Willis Haynes, colored, whose head was cut off at the Illinois Central cinder pit while he was at work yesterday morning, resulted in a verdict holding the company responsible.

Coroner Peal heard the evidence yesterday afternoon and the jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that Willis Haynes came to his death by being run over by an engine in the I. O. railroad yards through the negligence of the employees of the company."

Agony From Inherited Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

One person in every four has a weak heart. Unless promptly treated a weak heart will easily become a diseased heart. A little extra strain from any cause is sufficient to bring on this deadly malady, the most common cause of sudden death. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will tone up the heart's action, enrich the blood and improve the circulation.

"My trouble began with catarrh and I have always supposed it caused the trouble I have experienced with my heart. I had the usual symptoms of sleeplessness, lost appetite, constipation, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and pain around the heart and under left arm. My mother suffered in the same way and I suppose mine was an inherited tendency. At one time I was in agony. I suffered so severely and became so weak that my doctors said I could not live thirty days. At this time I had not slept over two hours a night on account of nervousness. The least exercise, such as walking about, would bring on palpitation and fluttering of the heart so severe that I would have to give up everything and rest. Nerve and Liver Pills cured me of constipation and heart symptoms disappeared under the influence of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I am in better health than I have been in twelve years and I thank Dr. Miles' Remedies for it. I think they are the grandest remedies on earth and I am constantly recommending them to my friends."—Mrs. L. J. CANTRELL, Waxahachie, Tex.

A WOMAN'S COMPLEXION.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. TRouble AT GRACEY.

FRANK OF A CLOCK.

New Castle, Ky., Oct. 30.—New Castle is a wide-awake town, but since midnight it has been wide-awake. From midnight until yesterday morning nobody slept. The town clock is to blame. It is the fire alarm as well as time piece. At 10 o'clock at night there was a fire. When the fire was out in an hour or so, the guardian of the clock wound it up for another run of eight weeks. Promptly at midnight, from some unaccountable cause, it began to strike. There was no way to stop it. The whole town was up and out again, thinking there was another fire. Soon the good people began pouring in from the country and in half an hour the crowd was immense.

Ding! dong! the clapper went till after breakfast time, when, after striking over four hundred, the clock ran down and stopped.

The County Clerk has provided blank ballots and each voter will have to write the names of the five trustees and a Police Judge on the ballot he votes. A hot and close contest is promised.

THE CAT AND THE MICE.

Find the Master of the House.

A Certain House was much infested with Mice. The owner brought home a Cat, a famous mouser, who soon made such havoc among the little folk, that those who remained resolved they would never leave the upper shelves. The Cat grew hungry and thin in consequence, and, driven to her wits' end, hung by her hind-legs to a peg in the wall, and pretended to be dead. An old Mouse came to the edge of the shelf, and, seeing through the deception, cried out: "Ah, ah, Mrs. Pussy! We should not come near you even if your skin were stuffed with straw."

MORAL.—Prudent folks never trust those a second time who have deceived them once; and, indeed, we cannot well be too cautious in following this rule; for upon examination we shall find that most of the misfortunes which befall us, proceed from our too great credulity.

SHALL KENTUCKY VOTE TO HANG CALEB POWERS

Extracts from the Louisville Herald.

The Louisville Herald, in a masterful article denouncing the action of the Democratic machine in Kentucky in making the conviction and execution of Caleb Powers, an innocent man, an issue in the present gubernatorial campaign, utters some sparkling gems of truth that should be immortal in journalism.

The Sun gives only a few of the potent arguments and eloquent comments, but they should find effective lodgment in the breast of every true man in Kentucky says the Herald:

"And so it has come to this—that the machine organization, representing itself as the once great and powerful Democratic party of Kentucky has fallen so low as to make the trap door of a scaffold its actual platform and the hanging of Caleb Powers its chief claim for perpetuation in the power it has abused and disgraced. All over Kentucky printed copies of the speeches in the prosecution of Mr. Powers before a packed and partisan jury are circulating. Thrust into the very firesides of people by a campaign committee to inflame them into a demand that he be sacrificed on the gallows to the necessities of greedy politicians, who would forever blacken the name of Kentucky, to hold on to offices they already occupy through a theft of the ballots.

"Governor Beckham is the author of this issue. He was the first to make the shocking proposition to trade off for the office of governor, the life of a young man fighting single-handed against the enormous odds of the whole power of a partisan state administration.

"Yet this is the governor who has himself polluted the records of the state with pardons to unspeakable villains and malefactors, for crimes so atrocious, so shocking to decency and humanity, and for reasons so frankly partisan, that he has not dared to permit free access to the public books and papers in which his pardons are set out. This is the governor who pardoned Fugate and Hudson, Goodloe Combs, 'the Wild Dog,' Curtis Jett and Tom White, the preparatory assassins for hire in Breathitt, the ferocious Bevinnes of Pike, and John McDavid, the cut-throat of Graves, first graduate of the whipping post statutes, and scores of other assassins and man-killers."

"Not one of these cases was that of a political convict. All were of men whose very neighbors were called on under the law to send them to prison. Every one received that mercy which a fellow townsman is always inclined to show. From every court and every fair and unguessed jury went up the signed certificate of absolute and undoubted guilt. In the Fugate and Hudson cases the highest court of the state uttered an indignant protest against the savage atrocity of the still good men so blinded by political zeal that they cannot see any wrong in it."

"There have been nine trials—three of Powers, three of Jim Heward, and one each of Berry Howard, Henry Yontsey and Ripley. Every jury has been solidly Democratic, whatever the complexion of the county whence the jurymen were chosen."

"In Bourbon county, where the last Powers jury was selected, the votes cast indicated that an impartial allotment of jurymen would have produced seven Republicans and five Democrats. Affidavits were made that the sheriff's officer passed over Republicans and summoned their Democratic neighbors; that out of 176 men summoned, 172 were regular Democrats. It was given out that one of the jurors was a Republican, but it turned out that he had been a supporter of Mr. Goebel, and voted in the Beckham primary last spring."

"Every jury solidly Democratic, trying political opponents on accusations into which the Commonwealth's attorneys, assisted by a notorious and corrupt criminal lawyer from Cincinnati, injected every atom possible of political virulence and zeal, before courts prejudicing every hearing with plainly expressed sympathy for the prosecution, with perjured witnesses giving and changing their testimony to suit—yet nothing has been proved against Powers but a suspicion that he may have been privy to Goebel's assassination by the hand of Henry Yontsey, the degenerate crank, who admits he planned the deed and denies he executed it."

"When the day comes that Caleb Powers shall be hanged according to the terms of judicial murder, after such mockeries of trials as he has had, the blackest page of Kentucky's history will be written. It will be written by the most vindictive and selfish group of time servers and self-seekers that has ever been cast up as the flotsam and jetsam of political accident. And the name signed to his death warrant will go down to obloquy, while Powers will rise clear as the years go by. No crime of political passion was ever yet vindicated by time."

"The people of Kentucky, who have been appealed to to give their votes to Beckham in return for the promised death of Powers, should reject the proffer with scorn. It never has been, and never will be, that Kentuckians refused fair play to a brave man. They should cast their votes for that man for governor who is not pledged or committed to any action except such as his cool and deliberate sense of justice shall approve, when the whole case shall have been heard and considered. And that hearing should be full and fair, divested of all the partisan rules and technical advantages, which have been uniformly used against Powers, and never in his favor."

"When this is done, justice will have been done, and we do not believe the death warrant of Caleb Powers would be written."

TO THE VOTERS OF PADUCAH.

I have been selected by the Republican party as its nominee for councilman from the Third ward and realizing the great responsibilities of the office want to tell you what I shall do if called to it.

I am for honesty first, and progress next. I shall vote to clean the city of filth, and to have the work done by our own workmen; vote to enforce every law, and to do away with vice and disorder; vote to give men power who are not afraid to enforce the laws; for men who will turn the wheels of progress; for men who are not tied to any man or set of men; vote to lift our city out of the mire of filth and corruption; to make of it one of which we can all be proud—one to which travelers will point as a progressive, clean, up-to-date town, and not refer to as is the case now.

This is my platform, and I solicit the vote of every voter regardless of party—of every man who wants a good, clean, progressive, honest administration. Yours very truly,

WM. SHORT.

THE WEATHER.

Rain tonight and Saturday. Cooler in the western part Saturday.

THE ONLY SURE WAY.

It should be evident to every good citizen in Paducah that the only sure way to defeat the Yeiser ticket is to vote for the Republican ticket. It is not a matter of politics, but of freeing the city from a clique that has dominated it to the detriment of the people for several years past. Politics may be out of place in a city election, but politics were introduced into local affairs years ago by the Democrats, who have long been accustomed to be elect anything that happened to be on the Democratic ticket. They have not chosen their men with a view to their fitness, and by drawing political lines have succeeded in unloading a lot of incompetent men on the taxpayers year after year. The records show it. The people know it, and now is the time to call a halt.

The people generally seem to desire fairness to prevail in local politics, and when a clique of politicians undermines and get into office by intimadation and trickery, that in itself is a sufficient proof of its unworthiness to represent the people. No Republican should vote for the Democratic ticket.

The stupendous outrage of trying to strike the names of two or three hundred Republican voters from the registration books solely because of a deperate desire to win in the coming election should be enough to cause every Republican voter in Paducah to rebel the gang by voting solidly for the Republican ticket.

Those Democrats who are dissatisfied with the administration of public affairs in Paducah, should remember that the only certain way to get a change is to vote for the Republican ticket. The Republican platform is to be found in The Sun, and every candidate is pledged to support that platform and faithfully carry it out to the best of his ability. A glance at the names of the Republican candidates should suffice to convince anyone that these men are in earnest and will fulfill their pledges to the letter. The tactics of the officeholders to hold on to office shows in what desperate straits they are, and it remains only for every Republican and every Democrat who is dissatisfied, to go to the polls and vote the Republican ticket Tuesday. The administration gang has made an effort to disfranchise between 300 and 400 Republican voters, most of whom, if not all, are entitled to vote, and the gang knows it. Various stories have been started with a view to frightening others away from the polls, but the Republicans will see that every man gets fair treatment, and the effort to intimidate will fall flat. The scheme to make the taxpayers of the county pay for the effort of a few men to disfranchise or intima-date legal voters shows how unscrupulous these demagogues are in their methods of office hunting. Every good citizen should go to the polls early Tuesday and vote the Republican ticket.

NOW AND THEN.

The News Democrat, the only newspaper in Paducah that is supporting Mayor Yeiser and the Democratic ticket, has evidently changed its opinion considerably inside one brief year.
On Sept. 12th, 1902, little over a year ago the injunction suit filed by Councilman Woolfolk, Fowler and Hummel, to prevent Paducah going into the second class and curtailing Mayor Yeiser's term of office two years, aroused the News Democrat, and caused it to say some real naughty things about the mayor. Its headlines the day the suit was filed were in box car letters, as follows: "Mayor Yeiser Attacks Bill Making Paducah Second Class." "Files Injunction Suit this Morning to test the Question and Will try to throw Paducah back into Third Class."

The following day it said in the centre of the page, with a border around it:

"The News Democrat wishes to go on record as being absolutely opposed to the attempt to throw Paducah back into the list of third class cities. The motives of the gentlemen causing this suit to be filed may have been the best possible, but they have made a wretched mistake. Regardless of opinions, the fact remains that this fall an election would be held for some offices, and next fall for all other offices, and Mayor Yeiser will have to test his right to hold his office until 1905, with either a Republican or Democratic nominee, elected in 1903, under the charter of second class cities.

If Paducah is thrown back into the third class, Mayor Yeiser can peacefully fill out his term, and so can some other city officials. Whether Mayor Yeiser can or cannot serve under the second-class charter is not now in question. The facts are Mayor Yeiser will be certainly allowed to serve his term if this suit against him is won by the men who are now suing him. This fact cannot be evaded. It must be faced and explained by all who are seeking to explain this injunction suit.
This suit is brought for no other purpose than to try in advance, if possible, the rights of officeholders, and office seekers in Paducah. We shall not attempt to call names or question motives. We have no quarrel with Mayor Yeiser. We do not wish to do him any injustice. But in the matters brought up by this suit, we must discharge a public duty, and that duty diverges from the way Mayor Yeiser has elected to go. We leave this matter to the people to judge. If they are satisfied, we also are satisfied.
But we expect to continue to give all the facts possible, and throw all the light possible on the most remarkable procedure ever known in Kentucky."

OUR FIRE DEPARTMENTS.

The time to strike is when the iron is hot. If Paducah should ever again be so unfortunate as to have a big fire, we want to be prepared for it. Now

PLANKS IN THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

4. We promise the citizens of Paducah, that we will give them a wise, conservative and economical administration. While having an eye to economy, we will at the same time continue to favor all municipal improvements that are lasting and permanent, using every effort to keep up with all other cities of the size of Paducah.

5. We pledge ourselves to protect the interest of the business men, to favor no measure that would be detrimental to the business prosperity of the city, and to see that the laws are enforced and the morals as well as the streets are improved.

6. We heartily favor the issue of bonds for the building of new streets, and especially for the building of a suitable hospital and market house, a hospital that will house our unfortunates and be a credit instead of a disgrace to our beautiful city.

is the time to begin. Every substantial citizen would like to see ample facilities provided in Paducah for fighting fires. Every man with property would like to see it, because he never knows whose property it is that will go next. Better fire facilities would reduce insurance rates. And along with more facilities, we should have a branch fire station on the North Side and another in the West End. It would cost money, but it might pay in the long run. Now, while the fire of Wednesday is still fresh in the minds of the people, is the time to begin an effort to improve our facilities.

The local firemen should receive a special training. Fire fighting is a regular science, and men who are adept at it usually have had a course of training just as a doctor, lawyer or minister. The Memphis fire department is about to have a class of 25 of its firemen drilled by a former chief of the New York fire department. He charges a small price for drilling firemen in smaller cities in all the tactics used in the large cities, and guarantees to graduate a class second to none in the United States. Those he teaches may afterwards instruct the other men. If Memphis firemen can be taught these things, so can firemen in the smaller cities, and we believe it is no reflection on our own firemen to suggest that the city secure for them instruction in modern fire fighting. It may prove to be of great use to the city some day.

Only recently a gentleman wrote the trust that dictates insurance in this state, regarding a reduction in rates for his property and was told in reply that the reason rates could not be reduced in Paducah was that the fire fighting facilities were inadequate.
Some time ago the city was told what to do to secure better fire protection and lower insurance rates, but nothing has ever yet been done by the city.

DEMOCRATIC METHODS.

The Louisville Democratic machine papers are not content with exaggerating the crowds that go out to hear the Democratic speakers, and with reducing the number that go out to hear the Republican speakers. They are now resorting to downright, palpable, brazen lying. A few days ago they published a statement that Captain W. J. Stone, former Confederate soldier and Democratic congressman from this district, had announced his intention of supporting Beckham and the Democratic ticket. This was to offset the authorized announcement of a few days before that Captain Stone would support Colonel Belknap and the Republican ticket.

Captain Stone has promptly exposed the mendacity by declaring that he had made no such statement, and could not see how such a report arose.

A Kuttawa dispatch says:
"He met, among the governor's party, Mr. Porter, of Bowling Green, one of his old friends, and introduced him to the people of Kuttawa who were present. That is all he did toward welcoming or giving support to the Democrats. He felt that as a citizen of Lyon county he could not be disrespectful to an old friend, no matter what his political views.

"Governor Beckham and Mr. Stone did not speak during the governor's stop here. The governor got off the train and shook hands with several of his acquaintances, but Colonel Stone will give his support to the Republican state ticket, and will do all he can to aid in the election of men who are pledged to give Kentucky a clean, honest administration."

The same man who sent out the accounts of the Beckham speaking here to the Louisville Democratic organs must have sent out some of the reports of the fire fight before last, judging from the inexcusable manner in which

7. We deplore the fact that our city has recently been forced to answer an indictment for maintaining a public nuisance, this added to the many other lawsuits, has not only been a cost to our community, but is disgraceful as well. We promise that if elected, such improvements as will forever prevent the possibility of being indicted for maintaining a nuisance of any kind.

8. We favor the adoption of a civil service in our schools, that will award efficiency, promote education, relieve the anxiety of the faithful teachers and reward them for their efforts.

9. We favor better streets, better health, better morals, better schools, fewer city officials, no grafts, less taxes, and a better city government from every standpoint, and pledge to bring about this result if favored with the support of the voters, whose help and influence we solicit.

the conflagration was garbled.

Local Democrats are very much amused at the accounts in the Louisville papers of the Paducah reception of the governor, and the staff writers put the crowd at 2,000 people. They only got on an "O" or two too many.

Every voter should remember the bond issue when he casts his vote next Tuesday. Paducah desires modern streets and a new city hospital and market house, and money thus spent would be well spent.

Mr. W. J. Bryan indignantly declines that Judge Stoddard called him a liar. He says the stenographic report shows Judge Stoddard only said "lawyer." Humph! Why this hair splitting?

Dowie has ignominiously failed to reform New York. He and his followers will return to Zion in a few days and Gotham will have to seek some new form of entertainment.

WED IN METROPOLIS

MISS AMELIA LEHRER AND MR.
H. C. MERCER MARRY THERE
THIS MORNING.

Miss Amelia Lehrer and Mr. Henry C. Mercer, of this city, were married this morning in Metropolis. It was not an elopement but the young people only went to Metropolis to have a quiet wedding. They were married by Justice Thomas Liggett, in his office.

The bride is the pretty sixteen year old daughter of Mrs. Christina Lehrer of South 11th street, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Catherine M. Katter-john. Mr. Mercer is a popular employe of the I. C. shops.

DRY LEAVES

CATCH FIRE IN EAVES OF MR.
E. G. BOONE'S HOME.

The fire department was called to the residence of Mr. E. H. Boone, on South Sixth street near Washington this morning about 6:30 o'clock to extinguish a small blaze in the roof which originated from a flue. There were leaves on the roof and a large pile had accumulated about the eaves on one corner, and a spark from the chimney set them afire. Little damage was done and the firemen had little trouble in stopping the threatened conflagration.

AN ERROR.

Mr. Editor: In your issue of the 29th
I noticed a fine display of the beautiful Carnegie library, an institution that we all are justly proud of. There is a mistake, however, in regards to the Ministerial Association, and in justice to that body I will give the facts. When the condition and needs of Paducah were being discussed in the association I moved that Rev. G.
W. Perryman write to Mr. Carnegie and see what he would do for Paducah in regard to a library. The vote was unanimous. The correspondence was made known to the association and was under its direction. The pastors supposed that what was done by their representative was their work. They soon saw their mistake, for when the corner stone was laid they stood around in the crowd without notice while other men were recognized, and now it is published that they held aloof from the plan. Most of the Paducah pastors are modest men and I think it right to state these facts that the people may know their relation to this great work. Truly, H. B. Johnston.

D. A. R. MEETING

Annual State Convention in Progress in Owensboro.

Brilliant Reception for Delegates Given at Vice Regent's home.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 30—The annual convention of the Chapters of Daughters of the American Revolution is having an interesting session in the chapel of the Y. M. C. A. building.

Mrs. Emma Bunch Tanner was chosen secretary pro tem and her appointment was made permanent. Twelve of the eighteen chapters in the state are prepresented and there are seventeen votes. Mrs. Cunningham, state regent, delivered a thoughtful address on the state of the organization. Last evening a reception was held at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Todd, vice regent, on Frederica street. It was easily the most brilliant event of the season.

SHAFT BROKE

AND THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL
SHOPS WERE SHUT DOWN
THREE HOURS.

This morning a coupler broke on the main shaft in the machine department of the I. C. and necessitated a shut down for more than three hour. The machinery in all three shops was stopped and the men had a short vacation.
The break was repaired as quickly as possible and the shop put in operation again.

SPECIAL OFFICERS

Placed on Guard at the Cinder Pit.

Rumors of Threats Against Tom Gilson Caused Some Alarm.

Trouble among the laborers at the local I. C. cinder pit was for awhile yesterday afternoon threatened and two special officers were placed on duty at the shops last night to see that no outbreak resulted.

It is said that some of the colored laborers had threatened Tom Gilson, the white youth who was said to be responsible for running an engine over Willis Haynes' neck yesterday morning, with violence, because they thought the accident a result of pure negligence.

There was much sullenness manifested among the laborers and several openly avowed that they were willing and ready to do anything towards settling the matter as the crowd saw fit.
This report reached the ears of the officers who placed two special men on duty. The trouble is now over.

IRONY OF FATE.

HAD SHE NOT CHANGED HER MIND SHE MIGHT HAVE ESCAPED.

Kansas City, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Emma Booth-Tucker, consul in America of the Salvation Army, wife of Commander Booth-Tucker, and second daughter of William Booth, founder of the army, died from injuries received in a wreck on the eastbound California train on the Santa Fe railway at Dean Lake, Mo. She lived half an hour.

Had Mrs. Booth-Tucker followed out her original intention she would have missed the wreck in which she was killed. She arrived in Kansas City on the California train and intended to remain over.

Mrs. Booth-Tucker found she could make a brief trip up town between trains however, and later decided to continue east on the same train. All the lower berths in the standard sleepers were taken and it was suggested that she and Colonel Holland take berths in the tourist sleeper. She at first objected, saying that she had never traveled second class except in India. But after an inspection of the car she accepted a lower berth on the tourist sleeper. The other members of Mrs. Booth-Tucker's party went into the chair car.

AYER-LORD FLEET

ALL SEVEN BOATS TO BE LAID UP BY LOW WATER.

The Pavana will return from Cairo today and lay up here. This with the Hosmer now in White river, is the only boat of the Ayer & Lord Tie company working and when they lay up the entire fleet will be idle until better stages of the rivers are reported.

The fleet is composed of seven boats which are the Russell Lord, Inverness, Duffey, Pavana, Margaret, Hosmer and Castalia, the latter now on the ways for repairs. The Castalia will be let into the river this week by the ways company. The Hosmer will be brought here from White river to lay up.

KNOW NOW

AND WILL NEVER FORGET THE EXPERIENCE.

The coffee drinker who has suffered and then been completely cured by changing from coffee to Postum Food Coffee knows something valuable.

He or she has no doubt about it. A California lady says: "I learned the truth about coffee in a peculiar way. My husband who has for years been of a very bilious temperament decided to leave off coffee and give Postum a trial and as I did not want the trouble of making two beverages for meals I concluded to try Postum too and the results have been that while my husband has been greatly benefited, I have myself received even greater benefit. When I began to drink Postum I was thin in flesh and very nervous and now I actually weigh 16 pounds more than I did at that time and I am stronger physically and in my nerves while husband is cured of all his ailments. "We have learned our little lesson about coffee and we know something about Postum too for we have used Postum now steadily for the last three years and we shall always continue to do so. We have no more use for coffee—the drug drink. We prefer Postum and health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. DISGUSTED DOWIE

HE IS TIRED OF NEW YORK—SCORES PARKHURST.

New York, Oct. 30.—John Alexander Dowie has announced to his followers another crusade. He told his host to return to Zion City and save their money against the expenses of another crusade. "Because," he said, "the good work of spreading the restoration message is going to be carried far and wide."

James Peters, in charge of transportation arrangements, said the departure would be made early next week, according to the program, the special trains returning as they came.

Dowie's neody meeting engaged in a denunciation of medical students, medical colleges, secret societies and the newspapers.

Concerning Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, Dowie said:

"There's that miserable Parkhurst. He toils over his sermons and his hearers toil while listening to them. I have made up my mind that Parkhurst isn't worth powder to be shot. He never in his life addressed as many people as I address in one week. I never heard that Dr. Parkhurst had to get the police to keep the people out of his church as they had to do at my meetings."

"What do I care what they say about me? Bah! I preach to more than a million every week. I've had a pretty good time in New York, but there's a better time coming."

He will return to Louisville with the recruits tomorrow morning.

LITTLE CHANGE

The condition of the I. C. yards is about the same today. The freight is still badly congested and cars are standing on the tracks in front of the passenger depot for want of storage room in the yards. The trainmen are kept busy night and day moving the freight but it seems to be coming in as fast as the yards can be cleared. The business of the road this year has been greater than any previous year in heavy freight traffic and this is what caused the blockade here.

BURNED TO A CRISP

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 30.—William H. Julian, one of the best known tax lawyers in Kentucky, was burned to death at midnight in his office. It is not known how the fire originated, but is presumed that Attorney Julian stumbled as he entered the room and fell into an open fire place, before which the body was found. He was fifty years old and unmarried, and a brother of Judge Ira Julian.

Damage Suit Goes to Jury in Circuit Court.

Very Few Cases for Trial This Morning in Police court.

CIRCUIT COURT.

At press time the case of Rachael Davis against the Paducah Railway and Light company was on trial and the attorneys were just speaking at 3 o'clock. The evidence was finished shortly afternoon and the attorneys in speaking will probably consume at least two hours with the instructions of the court.

The woman is a negress who was hurt on a car three years ago and wants $3,000 damages.

Motion for a new trial was made in the case of R. G. Caldwell against Gilbert & Arenz, which was decided in favor of the defendants.

M. F. Dunn, K. C. Rose and Gus Hank were excused from the petit jury and Ben Martin, L. J. Petter and J. A. Cole substituted.

POLICE COURT.

Mary Jefferson and Louis Beck, colored, were the star defendants before Police Judge D. L. Sanders this morning.

They became involved in a dispute on Kentucky street in the wee small hours. They fell to and began to fight. The man struck the woman in the head with his fists several times and succeeded in biting the flesh off of her fingers in several places while the woman succeeded in felling her antagonist several times.

Judge Sanders investigated the case and decided that the woman was not the aggressor. He dismissed the warrant against her but fined Beck $30 and costs.

Fred Folks, white, who worked for Lagomarsino helping carry out furniture during the big fire, took a small bottle of whiskey and drank it while working. He told the judge he thought he had that much coming to him, having worked all night for the proprietor, and as no one appeared to prosecute him, the warrant was dismissed. There were as many as a hundred bottles of whiskey taken during the fire.

The case against George Edwards, colored, for the alleged theft of copper from the Kentucky Iron company, was continued again until Monday.

IN COUNTY COURT.

J. W. Torian has filed suit against R. W. Pike in Judge Lightfoot's court for $120 claimed on a note. He asks for an attachment against three horses

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint.

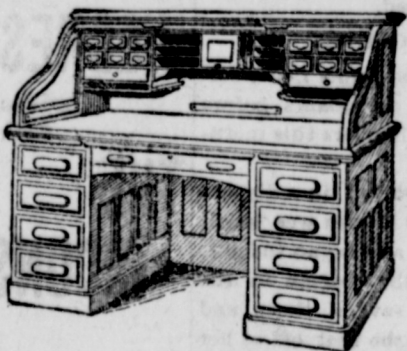

Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. The deposit of tubercular matter in the joints and glands is carried off as soon as the blood is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, eruptions, and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and harmless; an ideal blood purifier and tonic that removes all blood taint and builds up weak constitutions. Our physicians will advise without charge, all who write us about their case. Book mailed free.

NEW TRIAL ASKED ADDITIONAL DETAILS OF THE THURMAN MURDER TRIAL.

A motion for a new trial has been made in the case of George Redmond, given 14 years for killing Will Thurman, of Paducah, at Alton, Ill. The St. Louis Globe Democrat says of the killing:

"The murder occurred between midnight and 1 o'clock on the morning of June 7 last at North Alton. A dance had been given at the park there that night, and an altercation occurred between the parties shortly before the murder over a girl. Redmond had taken the young lady to a dance, and Thurman stated that he would take her from him, and reached for the girl's arm. As he did so Redmond pulled something out of his hip pocket and struck him a violent blow on the head. The man was taken by Redmond and another party to a saloon in a dazed condition, where drinks were procured, after which they retired to the park. Thurman was found lying unconscious in the park the next morning, and was supposed to be suffering from alcoholism. He was afterward taken to the hospital at Alton, where an autopsy disclosed the presence of a huge clot of blood under the skull, above the right ear. He died several days later. Redmond's story was to the effect that while returning home with a companion Thurman was found lying in the gutter. Thurman lived at Paducah, Ky. and had only been in the vicinity about two months."

PRESIDENT PARRY

SAYS CONDITIONS ARE CHANGING OUR GOVERNMENT TO SOCIALISM.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—D. M. Parry, of the National Manufacturers' Association, speaking today of the purpose of the convention of the employers' association, said:

"Conditions are so bad that it will not be long before the nature of our government is changed, and we shall have socialism. We propose to see that there is no change in our government, and that the existing conditions of affairs is preserved. We will show the workmen a better way to improve their condition than through the unions, as they now exist, or through socialism."

The great number of dyspeptics is increasing daily. This is due to hurried eating and lack of care in selecting proper food. There is nothing more effective to the rundown digestive organs than pure pepsin, and while pepsin alone corrects the over-worked digestive organs, a tonic, such as pure port wine, is also necessary to keep them in this condition.

Walther's Peptonized Port, to be found in all drug stores, combines in exact proportions the purest pepsin and richest port wine. It is highly recommended by thoughtful physicians. For sale by W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky.

Theatrical Notes.

Daniel L. Hart, a young journalist of Wilkesbarre, and, as a playwright, the author of "The Parish Priest" and other successes, and C. E. Callahan, author of the popular comedies, "Foggy's Ferry" and "A Romance of Coon Hollow," have written in conjunction, a new play entitled "Slaves of the Mine." That it is skilfully constructed, with bright and witty language, and strong dramatic scenes may be inferred from the previous works of its makers. It has a natural, every day story, with characters, both heroic and whimsical, drawn from life near Mr. Hart's home. There is comedy galore, and some sensational scenes giving ample opportunity for the scenic artist, Mr. James Fox of New York. A graphic reproduction of the bottom of a coal mine is seen, showing the miners at work with lights in their caps, cars being loaded and hoisted, characters going and coming up and down by the elevator, and, finally, the destruction of the entire mine by an explosion of gas as a climax. Specialties are to be given by the celebrated Eagle quartette and others. "Slaves of the Mine" will be given at The Kentucky tomorrow matinee and night. Popular prices at night and 25c matinee to all.

"The Governor's Son" is the best thing seen at the Kentucky for a long time in the musical comedy line. A large audience enjoyed it, and found it to be bright, clever and musical throughout. The work of John McVeigh as "the Governor's son," was exceptionally good, and Harry H. Lester, in a Dutch comedy role, is the best seen here since "The Polite Lunatic" in the Belle of New York or "Hans Nix" in The Telephone Girl. Walter Chester as the newly married man was good, and will Holiday as "Bill Swift," the athlete, handled his part well. Grace Hazard is a dainty and graceful little comedienne, and Louise Gould as the bride, Ruth Halbert as "Mrs. Dicky Dickson," and Hilda Hawthorne as the widow, were all far above the average. Miss Hawthorne having one of the best voices heard here this season. The chorus is composed of shapely girls, and the lines are bright and sparkling. There is plenty of action, and the verdict of the audience last night was that "The Governor's Son" is hard to beat. The company went to Cairo today on the Joe Fowler.

Miss Helen Grantley's portrayal of Dona Dolores in Lorimer Stoddard's play, "In the Palace of the King," has been favorably compared with Miss Viola Allen for whom the piece was originally written.

TRAMPS TROUBLESOME

A FEW COMPLAINTS NOW BEING MADE TO HEADQUARTERS.

A number of insolent tramps have been reported to the police, but thus far none of them have been caught. The hoboes seem to hang about the outskirts and do not venture down town. One went to a house a night or two ago in Mechanicsburg and gruffly said he wanted something to eat and wanted it quick. The lady was greatly frightened and said to wait a minute, and shutting the door she ran over to a neighbors. If he had been caught he would have been roughly handled by the men in the neighborhood. All tramps caught will be arrested for vagrancy and if found guilty put to work on the street.

Many persons who feel tired, nervous and all worn out—not exactly sick, yet far from well—seek the aid of a physician when what they really need is a simple tonic—something to brace them up.

People thus ailing should try Walther's Peptonized Port. Sold at W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky. It combines the richest old port wine with the very best of pepin. It creates a natural appetite, tones up the stomach, cures dyspepsia and indigestion.

Many physicians prescribe Walther's Peptonized Port when their patients need a dependable tonic.

Small size 50 cents, large size $1.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"Now, I'll scalp you," he said in a rumbling tone terrible to hear. And with his words out came his hunting knife from his sheath.

"Oh, have mercy, my dear M. Rousillon!" cried the panting captive. "Have mercy!"

"Mercy! Yes, like your colonel's; that's what you'll get. You stand by that forban, that scelerat, that bandit, and help him. Oh, yes, you'll get mercy! Yes, the same mercy that he showed to my poor little Alice! Your scalp, monsieur, if you please. A small matter; it won't hurt much!"

"But, for the sake of old friendship, Gaspard, for the sake!"

"Zut! Poor little Alice!"

"But I swear to you that I—"

"Tout de meme, monsieur, je vais vous scalper maintenant."

In fact, he had taken off a part of Maisonville's scalp when a party of soldiers, among whom was Maisonville's brother, a brave fellow and loyal to the American cause, were attracted by his cries and came to his rescue.

M. Rousillon struggled savagely, insisting upon completing his cruel performance, but he was at last overpowered, partly by brute force and partly by the pleading of Maisonville's brother, and made to desist. The big man wept with rage when he saw the bleeding prisoner protected. "Eh bien! I'll keep what I've got," he roared, "and I'll take the rest of it next time."

He shook the tuft of hair at Maisonville and glared like a mad bull.

Two or three other members of La-motte's band were captured about the same time by some of the French militiamen, and Clark when on his round cheering and directing his forces discovered that these prisoners were being used as shields. Some young creoles, gay with drink and the stimulating effect of fight, had bound the poor fellows and were firing from behind them. Of course the commander promptly put an end to this cruelty, but they considered it exquisite fun while it lasted. It was in broad daylight, and they knew that the English in the fort could see what they were doing.

"It's shameful to treat prisoners in this way," said Clark. "I will not permit it. Shoot the next man that offers to do such a thing."

One of the creole youths, a handsome, swarthy Adonis in buckskin, tossed his shapely head with a debonaire smile and said:

"To be sure, mon colonel. But what have they been doing to us? We have amused them all winter. It's but fair that they should give us a little fun now."

Clark shrugged his broad shoulders and passed on. He understood perfectly what the people of Vincennes had suffered under Hamilton's brutal administration.

At 9 o'clock an order was passed to cease firing, and a flag of truce was seen going from Clark's headquarters to the fort. It was a peremptory demand for unconditional surrender. Hamilton refused, and fighting was fiercely resumed from behind rude breastworks meantime erected. Every loophole and opening of whatever sort was the focus into which the unerring backwoods rifles sent their deadly bullets. Men began to fall in the fort, and every moment Hamilton expected an assault in force on all sides of the stockade. This, if successful, would mean inevitable massacre. Clark had warned him of the terrible consequences of holding out until the worst should come. "For," said he in his note to the governor, "if I am obliged to storm, you may depend upon such treatment as is justly due to a murderer."

Historians have wondered why Hamilton became so excited and acted so strangely after receiving the note. The phrase "justly due to a murderer" is the key to the mystery. When he read it his heart sank and a terrible fear seized him. "Justly due to a murderer!" Ah, that calm, white, beautiful girlish face, dead in the moonlight, with the wisp of shining hair across it! Such treatment as is justly due to a murderer! Cold drops of sweat broke out on his forehead and a shiver went through his body.

During the truce Clark's weary yet still enthusiastic besiegers enjoyed a good breakfast prepared for them by the loyal dames of Vincennes. Little Adrienne Bourcier was one of the handmaidens of the occasion. She brought to Beverley's squad a basket, almost as large as herself, heaped high with roasted duck and warm wheaten bread, while another girl bore two huge jugs of coffee, fragrant and steaming hot. The men cheered them lustily and complimented them without reserve, so that before their service was over their faces were glowing with delight.

And yet Adrienne's heart was uneasy and full of longing to hear something of Rene de Ronville. Surely some one of her friends must know something about him. Ah, there was Uncle Jazon! Doubtless he could tell her all that she wanted to know. She lingered after the food was distributed and shyly inquired.

"Hain't seed the scamp," said Uncle Jazon, only he used the patois most familiar to the girl's ears. "I'm not a scelped long ago, I reckon."

His mouth was so full that he spoke mumbly and with utmost difficulty. Nor did he glance at Adrienne, whose face took on as great pallor as her brown complexion could show.

Beverly ate but little of the food. He sat apart on a piece of timber that projected from the rough breastwork and gave himself over to infinite misery.

"What's the matter? How they hit you?" cry of spirit, which was trebled when he took Alice's lockets from his bosom only to discover that the bullet which struck him had almost entirely destroyed the face of the miniature.

He gripped the dented and twisted case and gazed at it with the stare of a blind man. His heart almost ceased to beat and his breath had the rustling sound we hear when a strong man dies of a sudden wound. Somehow the de-facement of the portrait was taken by his soul as the final touch of fate, signifying that Alice was forever and completely obliterated from his life. He felt a blur pass over his mind. He tried in vain to recall the face and form so dear to him; he tried to imagine her voice; but the whole universe was a vast hollow silence. For a long while he was cold, staring, rigid. Then the inevitable collapse came, and he wept as only a strong man can who is hurt to death, yet cannot die.

Adrienne approached him, thinking to speak to him about Rene, but he did not notice her, and she went her way, leaving beside him a liberal supply of food.

CHAPTER XX.

GOVERNOR HAMILTON received the note sent him by Colonel Clark and replied to it with curt dignity, but his heart was quaking. As a soldier he was true to the military tradition, and nothing could have induced him to surrender his command with dishonor.

"Lieutenant Governor Hamilton," he wrote to Clark, "begs leave to acquaint Colonel Clark that he and his garrison are not disposed to be awed into any action unworthy of British subjects."

"Very brave words," said Helm when Hamilton read the note to him, "but you'll sing a milder tune before many minutes or you find your whole garrison will perish in a bloody heap. Listen to those wild yells! Clark has enough men to eat you all up for breakfast. You'd better be reasonable and prudent. It's not bravery to court massacre."

Hamilton turned away without a word and sent the message, but Helm saw that he was excited and could be still further wrought up.

"You are playing into the hands of your bitterest enemies, the frog eaters," he went on. "These creoles, over whom you've held a hot poker all winter, are crazy to be turned loose upon you, and you know that they've got good cause to feel like giving you the extreme penalty. They'll give it to you without a flinch if they get the chance. You've done enough."

Hamilton whirled about and glared ferociously.

"Helm, what do you mean?" he demanded in a voice as hollow as it was full of desperate passion.

The genial captain laughed as if he had heard a good joke.

"You won't catch any fish if you swear, and you look blasphemous," he said with the lightness of humor characteristic of him at all times. "You'd better say a prayer or two. Just reflect a moment upon the awful sins you have committed!"

A crash of coalescing volleys from every direction broke off his levity. Clark was sending his response to Hamilton's lofty note. The guns of freedom rang out a prophecy of triumph, and the hissing bullets clucked sharply as they entered the solid logs of the walls or whistled through an aperture and bowled over a man. The British musketeers returned the fire as best they could, with a courage and a stubborn coolness which Helm openly admired, although he could not hide his satisfaction whenever one of them was disabled.

Hose Left at the Scene of the Fire.

Firemen Are Sore But Able to Be on Duty—Many Hats Ruined.

NEW QUARTERS OF SUFFERERS

The firemen from Central Station were taken to the scene of yesterday morning's fire at Second and Broadway this morning early to pick up the ladders, ropes and hose which were scattered about in the excitement of the fire.

Chief Woods stated this morning that the fire was about the hardest to fight he ever experienced and the reason he did not bring out the aerial ladder at first was because all available horses were being used in spreading the hose and he could not spare any at first to return to the station for the ladder.

Several hundred feet of hose is being left at the scene of the fire, which has not yet been entirely put out.

Chief Woods is sore and stiff today and says he feels like an old warrior who had gone through the heat of battle. His legs are sore, skinned, bruised and stiff and he can hardly walk about. The other firemen are also sore and stiff but only a few received bruises.

Since the fire many new hats have been sold to speculators especially ladies who had their head pieces badly damaged by sparks while standing about watching the fire. One lady had the veil upon her bonnet to catch fire from a large spark and before it was noticed had blazed up and ruined the bonnet.

Michael Brothers today rented the building at Third and Kentucky streets next to Bishop's laundry and began at once to fit it up for business. The new machinery, stock, etc., have been ordered and the firm will get to work again as soon as possible.

Mr. L. A. Lagomarsino will open his buffet about Monday, but it will probably be some time yet before the hotel is ready for business again.

M. Livingston & Co., who have considerable stock in their warehouse, are still doing business and have a temporary office at the warehouse on First street between Broadway and Jefferson.

H. Weil & Son have an office temporarily in I. Naheim's, next door to R. G. Terrell's. He will remain here until he can get into larger quarters. The building he occupied will be rebuilt at once.

Lang Brothers have rented a building on the east side of Second street near Bond's commission house, between Broadway and Kentucky, and will get down to business as soon as possible.

The debris is being cooled off as rapidly as possible and will be cleaned away immediately.

Last night late the Lagomarsino hotel caught fire again in the rear end of the fourth floor near the elevator shaft. A large pile of paper had taken fire again but fortunately was discovered in time to prevent a spread of the flames. Mr. Joe Waggoner, the watchman, extinguished the blaze with buckets of water.

The hotel during the fire was completely ransacked, and there was probably considerable loot from theft as well as otherwise.

Manager Joynes, of the Cumberland Telephone company, reports the loss of about a dozen phones from the fire, some of them were burned, some others were stolen, he thinks. Phones were taken from several rooms in the hotel.

The official amounts of insurance held are as follows:

Michael Brothers, $25,000 stock, $12,000 building.
Livingston & Co., $40,000 stock, $5,200 building.

Well & Sons, $15,500 stock, $4,000 building.

Lang Brothers, $2,600 stock, $4,000 building.

Lagomarsino, hotel building, $9,000; contents belonging to L. A. Lagomarsino, $6,300.

Mr. R. G. Terrell has a small loss as has the Western Union.

The adjustors will probably arrive about Wednesday. They will hardly reach the city Monday as the election is Tuesday and most of them will remain at home to vote.

GOOD CROWD

FATHER COFFEY OF ST. LOUIS, AT WAREHOUSE

Father Coffey, of St. Louis, addressed a large crowd at the warehouse last night. He came here at the instance of the independent men, and had one of the largest crowds that have attended a political meeting in Paducah. Rev. Coffey said very little about local conditions except by implication. He explained conditions in St. Louis, and the crusade that has been waged there, and pointed out the danger in allowing politicians to control city government until they prostitute and corrupt it.

Father Coffey is a forceful speaker who makes no pretensions to high-flown oratory, but speaks directly and to the point. His audience was much interested in what he said. He speaks this afternoon at 3 o'clock to ladies only, and at the warehouse again tonight to the general public.
